

Italian Studies Major Planning Guide

A major in Italian Studies consists of a choice of twelve upper-division courses in literature, history, music, theatre, and visual arts approved for the program and listed on the website under “Courses” and in the online catalog. Courses in other areas of Italian studies taken abroad or on our campus may also apply. The study of Dante (LTIT 115) is considered central for all Italian Studies majors.

Prerequisite language courses:

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> LIIT 1A Italian Conversation or equivalent | <input type="checkbox"/> LTIT 2A Intermediate Italian I  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> LIIT 1B Italian Conversation or equivalent | <input type="checkbox"/> LTIT 2B Intermediate Italian II |
| <input type="checkbox"/> LIIT 1C Italian Conversation or equivalent | <input type="checkbox"/> LTIT 50 Advanced Italian        |

---

LTIT 115 Medieval Studies: Dante and eleven elective courses selected from at least three departments are acceptable here. All coursework should be selected in consultation with the major advisor.

- LTIT 115- Medieval Studies: Dante [Dept. 1]
- Elective [Dept. 2] _____
- Elective [Dept. 3] _____
- Elective _____
- Elective _____
- Elective _____
- Elective _____
- Elective _____
- Elective _____
- Elective _____
- Elective _____
- Elective _____