Russian, East European, & Eurasian Studies Major Planning Guide

The major consists of a total of twelve upper-division courses. All coursework for the Major must be completed for a letter grade (a C- or better to count).

Prerequisite Language Courses: For Russian language placement testing contact the Literature Department undergraduate advisor.

- ☐ LTRU 1A First Year Russian or equivalent
- ☐ LTRU 1B First Year Russian or equivalent
- ☐ LTRU 1C First Year Russian or equivalent
- ☐ LTRU 2A Second Year Russian or equivalent
- ☐ LTRU 2B Second Year Russian or equivalent

Eight required courses: It is possible to petition to substitute a similar History or Literature course for a required course, in cases where the course is not being offered or the student has an alternate focus (such as East European or Eurasian Studies) that has been approved by a faculty advisor.

- ☐ LTRU 104A Advanced Practicum in Russian
- ☐ LTRU 104B Advanced Practicum in Russian
- ☐ LTRU 104C Advanced Practicum in Russian
- ☐ LTRU Elective or Literature Course on Eastern Europe and Eurasia
- ☐ LTRU Elective or Literature Course on Eastern Europe and Eurasia
- ☐ LTRU Elective or Literature Course on Eastern Europe and Eurasia
- ☐ HIEU Elective or Russian, Eurasian Elective
- ☐ HIEU Elective or Russian, Eurasian Elective

Four electives of the student’s choice, in any department. A list of approved courses may be viewed on the Russian, East European & Eurasian website under the “Courses” tab and in the online course catalog. Courses not listed that offer at least 50% related content may be petitioned.

- ☐ Elective (Any department)
- ☐ Elective (Any department)
- ☐ Elective (Any department)
- ☐ Elective (Any department)

Education Abroad Program (EAP)/Opportunities Abroad Program (OAP)-The program has not established a maximum number of courses that may be petitioned from EAP/OAP.